MEDICAL. THE PREMATURE DECAY OF YOUTH. JUST PUBLISHED BY DR. STONE, DHYSICIAN to the Troy Lung and Hygeinic Institute Yeakness and other diseases of the Bexnal Orgnus in both male and furnale.

Thanbove work has received the highest commendation from several leading papers of the Union as one of the most able ever published on this subject of such vital tuterest. It is for gratuitous distribution, and it will be sent by mail in a scaled envelop to any part of the country ree of charge, on receipt of two slamps for postage. A Word of Solemn Conscientious Advice to those who will Reflect. It Is a solemn fact that 100,000 die annually in the United States with consumption, marasmus, or prema-ture decay. There cannot be an effect without an ade-quate cause. In view of the awful destruction of human I to and health, by marasimis or premature exhaustion and decay of the nervous system—nervous debility caused by sexual diseases, such as the vice of Self-Abnae Seminal Weakness, Spermatorrhoa, Gonorrhoa, Givet, Impotence, Lencurrhoa, Viruient private discases, both In male and female, and Sterllity, and organic diseases of the kidneys, and in view of the disceptions which are practiced upon the unfortunate victims of such discusses by quacks and base pretenders, the Directors of the Troy lang and Hygeinic lustitute have instructed their at-lending physician to give medical novice, gratis, to all pwlients thus sfillcted, male or female, who may apply by letter or personally, with a description of their case, as to a true and reliable means of cure. And the listitution proposes to treat the unfortunate, and in cases of extreme poverty and suffering, for a sum that will only ensate the cost of medicines, to Mnle and Female, respecting the diseases of the sexun organs. Medicines and treatment will be sent by manatifution will guarantee the success of treat stitution for consultation, from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. of each day. Sundays, in the forencon.

In the following passage rom an editorial article in his paper of ye terday, he conveys a distinct answer to the question we so often propounded to him: We alone have ondeavored to show the peop of Kontucky and of the South what they have texpect should Lincoln be elected. We, only towa plainly told our follow-citizens that shoul sectionalism triumph in the persons of its leader to the terrible alternation of the section of the terrible alternation of the section of the to the question of slavery: on" or "subjugation" will be presented

Here the editor of the Courier distinct tells the people of Kentucky, that, if Lincol is elected, the terrible alternative is present to them of secession or subjugation. As i is not supposable that he is for what he con siders the subjugation of Kentucky, his remnrh quoted above, is of course a pregnant declar tion in favor of her secession in the event Lincoln's election. He undeniably expect Lincoln's election, and he has most certain used the influence of his paper to promote it but yet he avows, that, when it hoppens, Kentneky must go out of the Union or cousent to be reduced to a condition of "subjugation." And we have no doubt that the position, the taken at this late hour by the Courier, is the position of the whole of the Breekinridge or gans of Kentucky, the position of the whole of the electors and assistant electors, and the po-
